

Waiver and Boarding Agreement.(Expires 1 year from signing)

I understand that my dog will be cared for according to my instructions and to the agreement Out lined below:

I accept that sometimes injuries may happen when dogs play together. Teeth will catch fur or ears. Sometimes play gets rough. I understand that the kennel staff, are as diligent as they can be, but sometimes accidents happen. I know the staff will do everything in their power to care for a dog that is injured. I also understand that every measure has been taken to ensure the safety of the dog and that the staff will not be held responsible for any injury due to accidental situations.

I also understand that if it is decided that the dog needs veterinary care for something unexpected that the staff will try to contact myself or my agent(emergency contact) and will try to take the dog to its own vet. I will be responsible for that expense and give my veterinary permission to treat my dog to a maximum amount of $ _____. Initial _____.

I also understand that Dragonluck Kennels is not liable for any unexpected illnesses which are not directly linked to the care being given to the dog during its stay. I accept that staff will do some treatment such as pumpkin or slippery elm for diarrhea. Staff will inform you if any other dogs seemed to be sick so that you can watch your dog closely once they go home. We at Dragonluck do everything we can to prevent spread of disease but sometimes dogs go home with diarrhea or vomiting from the increased exercise and should be fine after a couple of days at home.

I also do not hold Dragonluck Kennels responsible for any lost, broken or damaged personal items (toys, beds, etc.)
